

Never Silent: A Conversation to Bring Us Together

Join us for a solemn commemoration of the 50th anniversary of Martin Luther King's assassination. On April 4, 1968, an attempt was made, not just to murder an individual, but to stop a national conversation that was healing racial divides and moving our nation forward. A half-century later, we honor Dr. King's legacy by refusing to be silent, or isolated from each other.

Hear from our panel as they speak from their life experiences, and join the conversation with your neighbors around the table!
